

Because even 1 person who has no home
IS ONE TOO MANY...

I'M GOING TO OCCUPY
HOME-LESSNESS

AT THE TENT CITY/

KIMBALL AVENUE CHURCH

You can too!

Saturday, March 31, 2012

Starting at 7:00 pm at the corner of Kimball & Medill
(3400 W and 2324 N)

- Learn from Chicago organizations working to provide shelter, protect homeowners and renters, stop the destruction of public housing, and build affordable housing in Chicago.
- Act to preserve Public Housing in Chicago.
- Prepare for Occupy Palm Sunday, an ecumenical celebration of the good news to be held at the Logan Square Eagle monument on Sunday afternoon, April 1.
- Enjoy camaraderie under the stars and meet others who are standing up for justice and hope.

ONE NIGHT ONLY

- Join us for the evening or stay overnight.
- Enjoy a light breakfast in the morning.
- Remain for worship on April 1 at 10:00 am
- March with us to Occupy Palm Sunday at Noon

Those planning to stay outdoors overnight must provide their own tent, sleeping bags and personal items. Participants are fully responsible for their actions while on the church property and camp overnight at their own risk. Cooking, open flames, and alcohol will not be allowed on the premises. Participants are encouraged to bring beverages and snacks to share. We will "pass the hat" to help cover breakfast, portable toilet and other event expenses. Please respect our neighbors.

To register for the event, please contact Rev. Bruce Ray at 773-278-1990 or kimballavenuechurch@yahoo.com no later than March 30.

Provide your name and contact information.

Registered participants will be contacted regarding adjustments to the event in case of severe thunderstorms, below freezing temperatures or other inclement weather.
